RECOMMENDATION

Whilst this is an appropriate time to deal with committees and delegates it may be best to postpone all or some of this for a future Council meeting. Council has a new CEO and three new Councillors and so it may wish to workshop the options and expand the purpose of the Audit Committee to include financial matters and the like. The suggested workshop would allow the new CEO to work with Council on ensuring it has the appropriate committee's in place at that required matters, such as the purpose of the committee, are fully addressed opportunities before making appointments.

This would also allow newly elected Councillors to become more familiar with the operation of Council, committees and entities they may wish to represent Council on, before appointments are dealt with.

That Council consider holding over all or some of the appointments of committees and delegates till a later date to allow the new CEO and new Councillors more time for input into this important function of Council
