A note from the editor

Dear Reader,

It's been lovely to feel the slightly cooler change settling in across Three Springs (for the moment). After the long stretch of summer heat, the milder days are certainly being welcomed and it's nice to see people out and about enjoying the change in weather.

Planning is currently underway for our upcoming ANZAC Day commemorations, with the support and assistance of the local Returned and Services League of Australia (RSL). ANZAC Day is always a significant and reflective time for our community, and we look forward to coming together to honour and remember those who have served. More details will be shared soon as arrangements are finalised.

Desert Blue Connect also has an exciting event coming up in Morawa on the 18th of April, which is shaping up to be a fantastic day out for the community. Their team continues to do important work across our region, and it's great to see opportunities like this for people to connect, learn and get involved.

With the local government elections approaching, many residents will have now received their postal voting packs. We encourage everyone to complete their vote and return it as soon as possible to ensure it is received in time for the close of polling on the 26th of March. Ballots can be returned by post using the envelope provided. If you are unable to post your vote, or if it is too late to send it by mail, you may hand deliver your completed ballot to the Shire office before the close of polling on the 26th of March. Participating in local elections is an important way to have your say in the future direction of our community.

Looking ahead, Imerys Talc Mine will also be hosting a community Easter event on the Town Oval on Thursday the 26th of March from 4pm. It promises to be a fun afternoon for families and residents, and a great opportunity to gather together and celebrate the season.

As always, thank you for being part of what makes Three Springs such a special place. Enjoy the cooler weather, take the time to connect with those around you, and we look forward to seeing you out and about at the many events coming up.

Warm regards,

Tayla Mutter

Tourism & Events Officer

About Me

My husband and I purchased a house in Three Springs almost 6 years ago, for the quiet life and to breed Maine Coon Cats.

We have loved Three Springs from day 1 and I would like to be more involved in the community. Nominating to become a member of the local council is a way for me to learn more about Three Springs as a whole and be apart of something great.

Ballot paper name TRANT, Michael

Candidate name Michael Thomas TRANT
District Shire of Three Springs
Nominating for Councillor for Shire of Three Springs
Election type Extraordinary
Enrolment status TRANT, Michael is eligible to stand for election as a resident of the Shire of Three Springs.

About me:

I've lived in the area most my life, growing up and working on farms around Eneabba before moving to Geraldton, Yalgoo, then Perth, and finally Three Springs. In that time I've worked as a marine draftsman, farmer, pastoralist, and FIFO utility, and came to Three Springs for a harvest eight years ago and never really left. I also write a little bit.

Why I'm running for Council:

Three Springs has been good to myself and my partner, Kylie, who is also working here. We've no kids at the school, and aren't involved in sport, so nominating for Council is my way of helping out the town.

I am easily approachable and happy to take any concerns or suggestions from residents to Council meetings.

How would you feel knowing you paid ten times more than necessary just because you clicked on the first link in your search results?

Consumer Protection is urging you to keep your eyes peeled for websites offering services for inflated prices, when the government already provides these services for free or at a fraction of the cost.

While not illegal, these commercial websites can be hard to spot as they will often look official or even use similar names, and they have usually paid to appear at the top of search results.

The State Government recently issued a warning about commercial websites offering to obtain birth, death, and marriage certificates at inflated costs. Not only is the cost a concern but also the sensitive personal information and credit card details you might give away to an overseas company. Other examples of websites that charge a fee to complete a task that is already available for free, or at a much lower cost, through official government platforms include vehicle registration checks, searching for lost or unclaimed superannuation and even applying for a travel visa to other countries.

The most common service Consumer Protection sees Western Australians unintentionally spend more on is the Personal Property Securities Register (PPSR) check. This is a check you can do on a used vehicle, boat, caravan or trailer to see if money is owing, and whether it's been written off or stolen. Going direct through the government site will only cost $2. Any other website will charge a lot more for the same information.

Fuel price information is another common service people use third-party apps for when it's available for free through FuelWatch.wa.gov.au. You might be thinking, "well the fuel price app I use is free"? This may be the case but it's also worth thinking about the personal information a third-party app is collecting and where it is collecting it from. Often these apps draw on the information provided on the FuelWatch website, meaning the data could be outdated or in other cases it will draw from crowd sourced data, which could be incorrect. Going to FuelWatch direct means you can be confident the prices are current and right.

There is an easy way to check if an official-looking website is actually official, as there is one thing these websites can't copy, and that's the '.gov.au' in the web address. The use of .gov in a web address is exclusively reserved globally for government agencies. This applies to local, WA and Federal Government websites, but also overseas.

Keep in mind the country domain will follow the .gov. For example, United Kingdom is .gov.uk, India use .gov.in and the US is a straight .gov.

If your preferred search engine is Google, you may notice non-government websites have a tag showing "Not a government website" in the search results. This is another helpful way to ensure you go to the correct website.

Remember, if you are not using an official government website you may be paying more than necessary and there is no guarantee your personal or financial information will be safe.

VOLUNTEER GRANTS PROGRAM 2025/26 NOW OPEN 24 February 2026

Federal Member for Durack, Melissa Price, encourages community organisations across the Durack electorate to submit an Expression of Interest for the 2025/26 Volunteer Grants Program.

"I greatly respect the thousands of volunteers across Durack whose commitment and generosity enhance the wellbeing of our community," Melissa Price said.

"Day in and day out, volunteers provide essential support across our communities, particularly to those facing disadvantage. I strongly encourage volunteer organisations to apply for these grants to help ensure their work is delivered safely and to the highest standard," Ms. Price added.

Grants of between $1,000 and $5,000 are available to help community organisations support the efforts of Durack's volunteers. Grant funding can only be used for eligible activities or items, including but not limited to insurance, volunteer training, the purchase of small assets, food preparation equipment and appliances, educational equipment, fuel and transport costs and the cost of working with children checks and police clearances.

Grant applications should ensure the funding is used to pay for items that are cost-effective. An Expression of Interest form is now available by visiting Melissa Price MP EOI where you can complete and submit via email to melissa.price.mp@aph.gov.au. Applications can also be posted or delivered to Ms Price's Geraldton office at 2B/209 Foreshore Drive, Geraldton. WA. 6530.

Guidelines can be found at Grants — Melissa Price MP.

Closing date for the Expressions of Interest forms is Tuesday 7 April 2026 at 5pm.

Successful Expressions of Interest will be nominated to formally apply for funding. If your Expression of Interest is successful, please ensure you are prepared and able to complete a full funding application in April 2026.
